

Head of Client Services

22.5 hours per week

£32,000 per annum pro rata

Initially 12 months, with potential for permanent position.

York Mind is a successful mental health charity providing a wide range of services to help support people's mental health recovery and wellbeing including counselling, an activities programme, training, services for young people and advocacy.

We have recently taken on a shared leadership model with Doncaster Mind, and are looking for a Head of Client Services to manage and support client facing services for York Mind. The duration of this role is dependent upon the success of the shared leadership model, which will be reviewed at a 6 and 12 month interval.

We are seeking an individual with significant experience of managing client facing services and providing effective leadership to project staff. As a member of the Senior Management Team, the successful candidate will be required to think strategically about service delivery, ensuring that services are delivering towards the strategic aims and values of the organisation.
